

Expropriation Act 13 of 2024

EXPROPRIATION ACT 13 OF 2024 — OVERVIEW (EDUCATIONAL)

Constitutional frame (s 25)

Property may be expropriated only in terms of law of general application for a public purpose or in the public interest, subject to compensation. Compensation must be just and equitable, reflecting an equitable balance between the public interest and the interests of those affected.

Act themes

- Powers and procedures for expropriating authorities
- Notices, investigation and opportunity to be heard
- Compensation — including debates around circumstances where nil compensation may be just and equitable for land
- Court review and dispute resolution

For individuals

If you receive an expropriation notice, diary deadlines, keep all papers, and get advice quickly — time limits and valuation issues are technical.

For lawyers

Read the Act with the Property Valuation Act frameworks, municipal planning, and recent academic/practice commentary; verify commencement and regulations.
